

PROGRAM COORDINATOR:

MARK DUCEY
Mark.Ducey@unh.edu
603-862-4429

Program Overview

Forestry education at UNH focuses on sustainable management of forests for biodiversity, productivity, and health, based on a multidisciplinary approach. The program's goals are to provide a sound professional preparation, a broad general education, and the flexibility to cultivate special abilities and interests, leading to a bachelor of science forestry degree, accredited by the Society of American Foresters.

Student Involvement

- Xi Sigma Pi: National Forestry Honors Society
- Student Environment Action Coalition
- EcoQuest Study Abroad

Internships and Research

- Student Conservation Association
- Hancock Forest Management
- US Forest Service
- Appalachian Mountain Club

Employment Areas

- Forest and Conservation Management
- Consulting
- Urban Forestry
- Forest Policy Advocacy
- Educational Institutions
- Federal and State Agencies

Where Alumni Are Working

- U.S. Forest Service
- Society for the Protection of New Hampshire Forests
- New York State Department of Environmental Conservation
- Mohonk Preserve
- Milton CAT
- State of New Hampshire Division of Economic Development

Job Title Examples

- Forestry Technician
- Forestry Equipment Specialist
- Forester
- Forest Protection Officer
- GIS Specialist
- Consultant
- Land Surveyor

Further Education

- Stephen F. Austin State University
- University of Florida
- University of New Hampshire