

MAX HUGES

39 College Road Durham, NH 03824 • (603) 123-4567 • Mhuges@wildcats.unh.edu

EDUCATION

University of New Hampshire, Durham, NH

Bachelor of Science in Wildlife and Conservation Biology

Expected: May 2018

GPA: 3.79

Relevant Coursework: Wildlife Habitats, Wildlife Inventory & Monitoring for Research, Conservation, & Management, Conservation Biology, Physiological Ecology, Wildlife Population Ecology

Ecoquest, Aotearoa, New Zealand

January-May 2017

- Research Project: Engagement in Integrated Sustainability Concepts in the Primary Classroom
 - Educated local students in areas of sustainability by integrating environmental education into curriculum areas
-

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

Center for Wildlife, Cape Neddick, ME

June 2017-August 2017

Wildlife Care Intern

- Released 3 rehabilitated animals back to their natural environments
- Administered daily medications and monitored up to 9 patients per day
- Facilitated in medical examinations and procedures of bird, reptiles, and mammals

Massachusetts Audubon, Wareham, MA

September 2016-December 2016

Outreach Volunteer

- Represented Great Neck Sanctuary at 5 community events by presenting on conservation topics to the general public
- Developed and delivered interactive content focused on native wildlife and natural history to school groups
- Collaborated with staff to develop educational programming and promotional material for events and programs

Camp Lawrence, Laconia, NH

June 2016-August 2016

Counselor

- Implemented inquiry-based nature program to 40 campers, ages 5-12
 - Mentored 2 Counselors-In-Training by providing ongoing guidance and feedback on activities and social interactions
 - Organized a lunch and chat group to support first time campers in building strong bonds and friendships with peers
-

CAMPUS INVOLVEMENT

Alpha Phi Omega (APO)

September 2016-Present

- Coordinated campaign to fundraise over $500 towards team's Relay for Life goal
- Dedicated over 40/hrs per semester to volunteer in a variety of service projects

Campus Activities Board (CAB)

October 2015-Present

- Planned free campus activities for undergraduate students
 - Managed and updated social media accounts for organization
-

ADDITIONAL EXPERIENCE

Boys and Girls Club, Salem, NH

September 2014-May 2016

Group Leader

- Supervised and moderated recreational activities of 15 children ages 5-14