

Sarah Green

39 College Road Durham, NH 03824 • (603) 123-4567 • Sgreen5@wildcats.unh.edu

EDUCATION

University of New Hampshire, Durham, NH
Bachelor of Science in Animal Science

Expected May 2018
GPA: 3.57

Relevant Coursework: Principles of Animal Nutrition, Endocrinology, Genetics of Domestic Animals, Anatomy and Physiology, Immunology, Pathogenic Microbiology, Physiology of Reproduction

Lab and Animal Care Skills: Electrophoresis, PCR, Behavioral Assay, Immunoassay Performance, Plasmid Purification and Protein Expression, Sterilization Techniques, Light Microscopy, Feeding and Special Diet Preparation, Breeding, Facility Maintenance and Disinfection, Grooming, Handling and Restraint

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

UNH Stable Management Internship, Durham, NH

May-August 2017

Intern

- Supported medical maintenance, rehabilitation, and general equine care services
- Managed daily operations including coordination of feeding, maintenance, and grooming
- Trained in emergency procedures and disaster training protocols

Cooperative Real Education in Agricultural Management (CREAM), Durham, NH August-May 2017

Vice President

- Co-led business meetings and delivered presentations relevant to current dairy industry trends
- Demonstrated effective communication skills while working with team to operate and manage a small business consisting of a Holstein dairy herd.
- Performed daily activities including milking dairy cattle, calf care and feeding, mucking and re-bedding stalls, and recording animal health information

Cocheco Valley Humane Society, Dover, NH

September 2016-Present

Volunteer

- Provide care for shelter animals including feeding, cleaning, and socialization opportunities
 - Serve as primary contact to greet visitors and answer general inquiries about services and events
 - Organize fundraising campaigns for annual walk for the animals and manage social media sites
-

ADDITIONAL EXPERIENCE

Applebee's Grill & Bar, Epping, NH

December 2015-Present

Server

- Engage customers and exhibit superior communication skills with customers and team members
- Prioritize and manage time efficiently in a fast-paced environment, while maintaining quality service
- Train and mentor new staff members on protocols and procedures